Lodging

We have 12 rustic cabins with approximately 100 beds. The cabins are wooden structures with electricity and metal beds with twin sized mattresses as well as cubby-closets for personal items. The cabins and other Camp buildings are not heated or air-conditioned. There is a separate washhouse for the upper and lower cabins. Upper cabins sleep 12 in each cabin with a sliding wall that can separate campers to 6 on each side. Lower cabins sleep 8 in each cabin. There are also a few, smaller cabins that include a bathroom. Campers bring their own bedding, towels, toiletries, etc. To increase overnight accommodations, tents are negotiable.

Dining

We have an indoor dining facility (Main Lodge) with a commercial kitchen.

Conference and Meeting Facilities

Our Main lodge with a commercial kitchen has two, large sliding doors that divide the building into three rooms, each accommodating approximately 50 people. Your group may also use our outdoor pavilion and our "store" with wrap around porch for meetings. Meetings/conference rooms with more than 100 people is negotiable.

Waterfront/ Pool

Our large, outdoor pool is fully fenced with accessibility through our pool house. We do not provide a lifeguard. Swim at your own risk. Youth 18 and under must be supervised by an adult 21 years old or older. No swimming or pool use after sunset or before sunrise.

Miscellaneous
